

2005-2006 Elementary School Essay Contest Winners
“The Scientific Journey: Pathways to Discovery”

Children’s Health Research Institute in partnership with Partners in Research, Let’s Talk Science and The University of Western Ontario are pleased to announce the winners of the 2005-2006 Elementary School Essay Contest in the greater London area. We would like to thank all the students who submitted essays to this competition and offer congratulations to the winners of this year’s competition.

Elementary Level
2005-2006 Essay Contest Winners

Grand Prize Winner:

The Grand Prize was awarded to Dat Le of St. Anne Catholic Elementary School for his essay entitled “Recent Stem Cell Therapies Treat Many Well Known Diseases and Conditions.”

Grade	Award	Name	School	Essay Title
8	1 st	Dat Le	St. Anne Catholic Elementary School	“Recent Stem Cell Therapies Treat Many Well Known Diseases and Conditions”
8	2 nd	Nathan Law	Princess Anne French Immersion Public School	“So...you think health research doesn’t affect kids”
8	3 rd	Jerrica Gilbert	Parkhill – West Williams Public School	“Three Important Devices in the Medical World”
7	1 st	Kathryn Koivu	Port Stanley Public School	“How Healthcare Benefits Premature Babies”
7	1 st	Ariana Malthaner	Port Stanley Public School	“Cardiac Research Gets Kids Pumping”
7	3 rd	Kelsey Valentine	D.M. Sutherland Public School	“Nutrition and Physical Activity”
6	1 st	Josh Jadischke	Byron Northview Public School	“Stem Cell Research: Potential and Controversy”
6	2 nd	Alicia Johnson	Southdale Public School	“Attention Deficit and Hyperactivity Disorder”

6	3 rd	Brittany Pullman	Southdale Public School	“Hutchinson-Gilford Progeria Kills Children”
5	1 st	Nolan Ross	Jack Chambers Public School	“Robotic and Telesurgery”
5	2 nd	Bridget Hart	Ryerson Public School	“Breakthrough! Continuous Automated Epilepsy Diagnosis for Babies”
5	3 rd	Franco Quan	Jack Chambers Public School	“Kidney Diseases in Children”
